NEWS BY TO-DAY'S AIL.

The reported cases of cruelty to negroes in North Carolina, are now denied, from proper authorities. The ultra sensation papers have been very busy of late with these canard cruelty cases.

A dispatch says that at Nashville, yesterday, "Gen. Wheeler of the late Confederate army, was badly beaten by Col. Blackburn and Capt. Quion."

George Gladwin, aged twenty-nine, a native of Connecticut, has been arrested in New York, charged with forging an endorsement on a stolen draft on Trowbridge & Sons, of New Haven, for $3,900. He also forged the name of Aaron Smith, and by the forgery he obtained possession of over two hundred thousand dollars in bonds of the Tiffin and Fort Wayne Railroad at the St. Nicholas Hotel, after which he decamped. The bonds were recovered.

The rebels in Hayti still hold Cape Haytien, but were subjected to seige and the fire of the national troops.

Gov. Perry, the provisional Governor of S. C., in a recent speech, expressed the opinion that South Carolina will be ready by the first Monday in December to send up Congressional representatives to Washington, with a remodeled Constitution, including the abolition of slavery and several other "popular reforms." He says that as South Carolina was the most disloyal of the Southern States, it will now become the most faithful in its allegiance to the Government.

Gen. W. S. Hancock has been breveted a major general in the regular army, to date from the 15th of March, for "distinguished services during the war."

Gen. Ramsay, formerly of the Confederate army, and at one time in command at Knoxville, Tennessee, has been arrested at Nashville and sent to Knoxville, to be tried on the charge of murder. Col. Miller, of the Federal army, and but recently the radical candidate for Congress, in the First district of Tennessee, has been arrested by order of Gen. Stoneman, on charges involving serious consequences. The Brigade Quartermaster and the Commissary of Colonel Miller's command were arrested at the same time.

At Jeffersonville, Indiana, the feeling of the white soldiers and citizens is said to be intense against the negro regiment quartered there. Murders are charged to have been committed by the negro soldiers, and as yet no arrests have been made. Two of the negro soldiers have been killed in retaliation.

The trial of Captain Wertz by Military Commission, at Washington, was continued yesterday, but was brought to a speedy termination by a suggestion on the part of the Judge Advocate that the Court adjourn. No day was assigned for the reassembling of the Court, and many surmises are afloat in regard to the causes which have led to its sudden dissolution.

A dispatch from Albany, N. Y., published in the papers, says that Mr. Jefferson Davis has written a letter, to Mr. R. H. Gillett, his counsel, saying:

"I am still ignorant of the charges against me and the source of them, and the tribunal before which I am to answer. Your letter gave me the first notice of the Washington indictment." He requests Gillett to have a conference with Charles O'Connor, his other counsel, so that they may be prepared for the trial as soon as it is brought on. A direct application to the proper Department, asking to be informed when and before what tribunal he is to be tried, remains unanswered, because, it is supposed, neither has been actually determined by the President."
